

A 112 student has nothing to do over Thanksgiving break

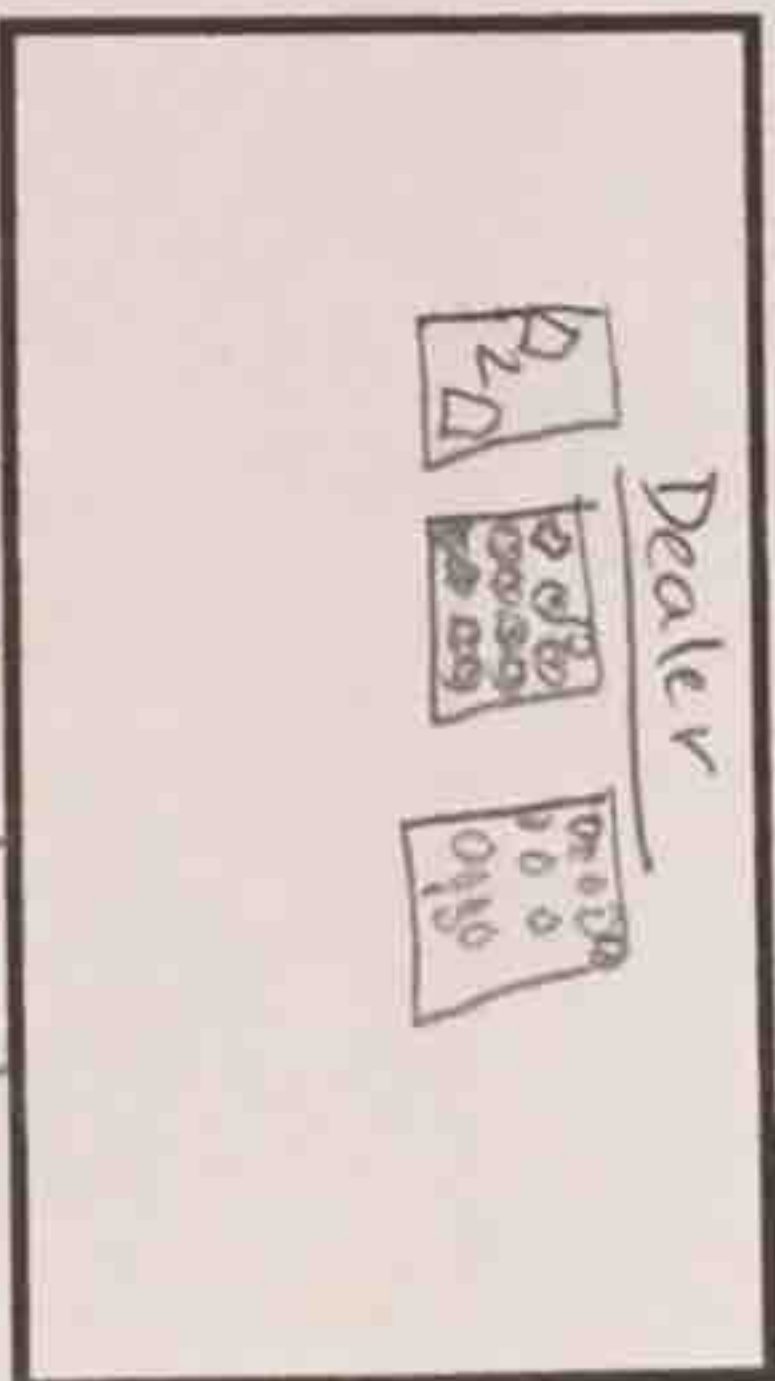

The user gets a 19 and decides to hold

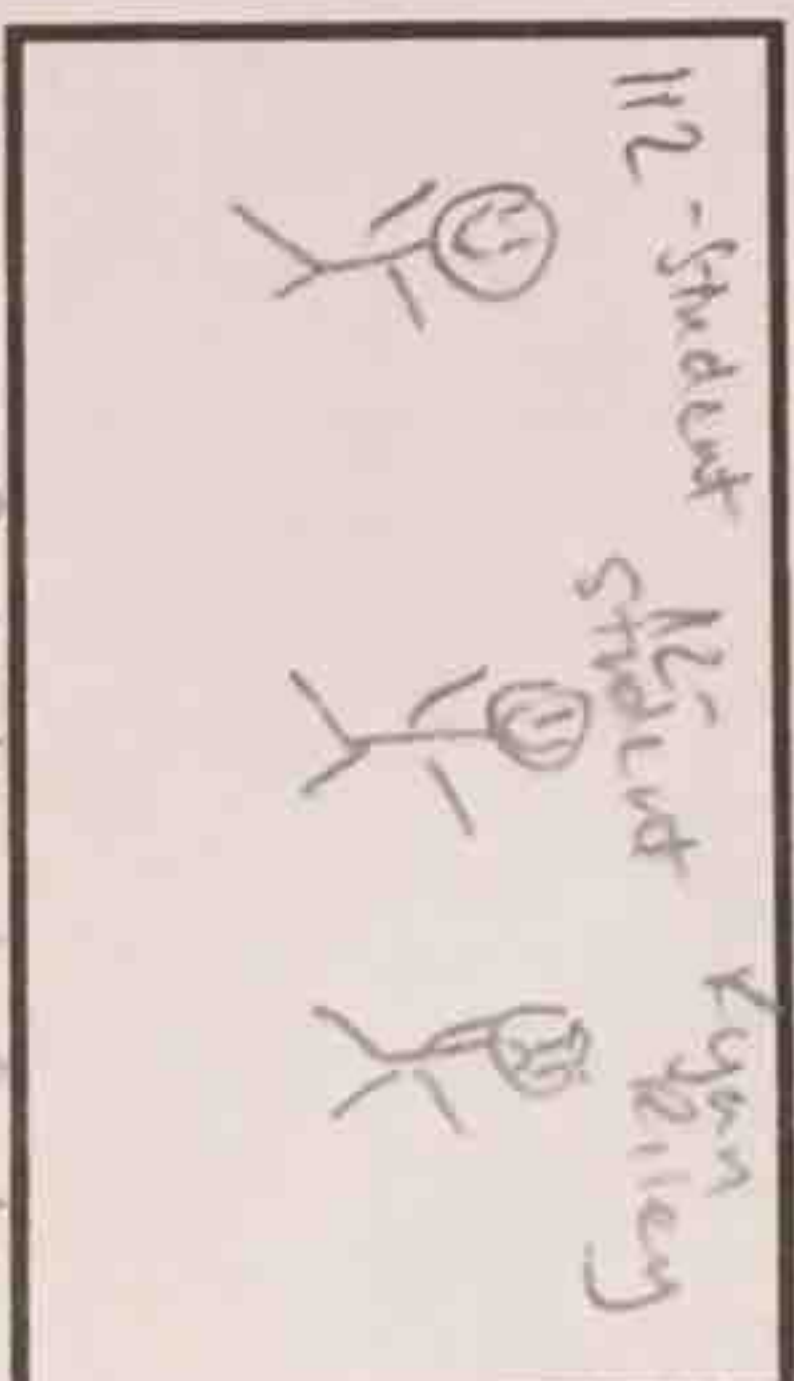

The user wins all the money in poker

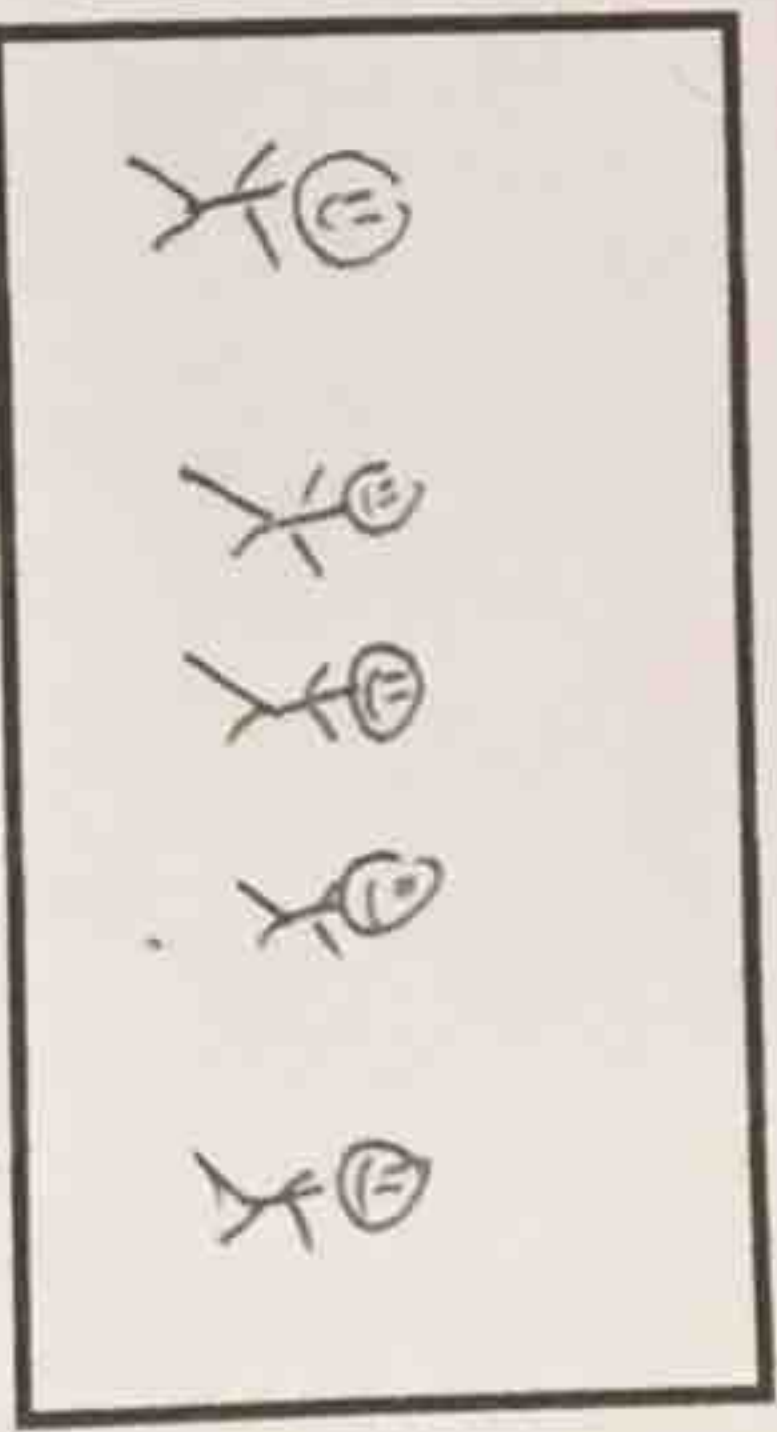

A god-like shaman approaches and gives him an idea

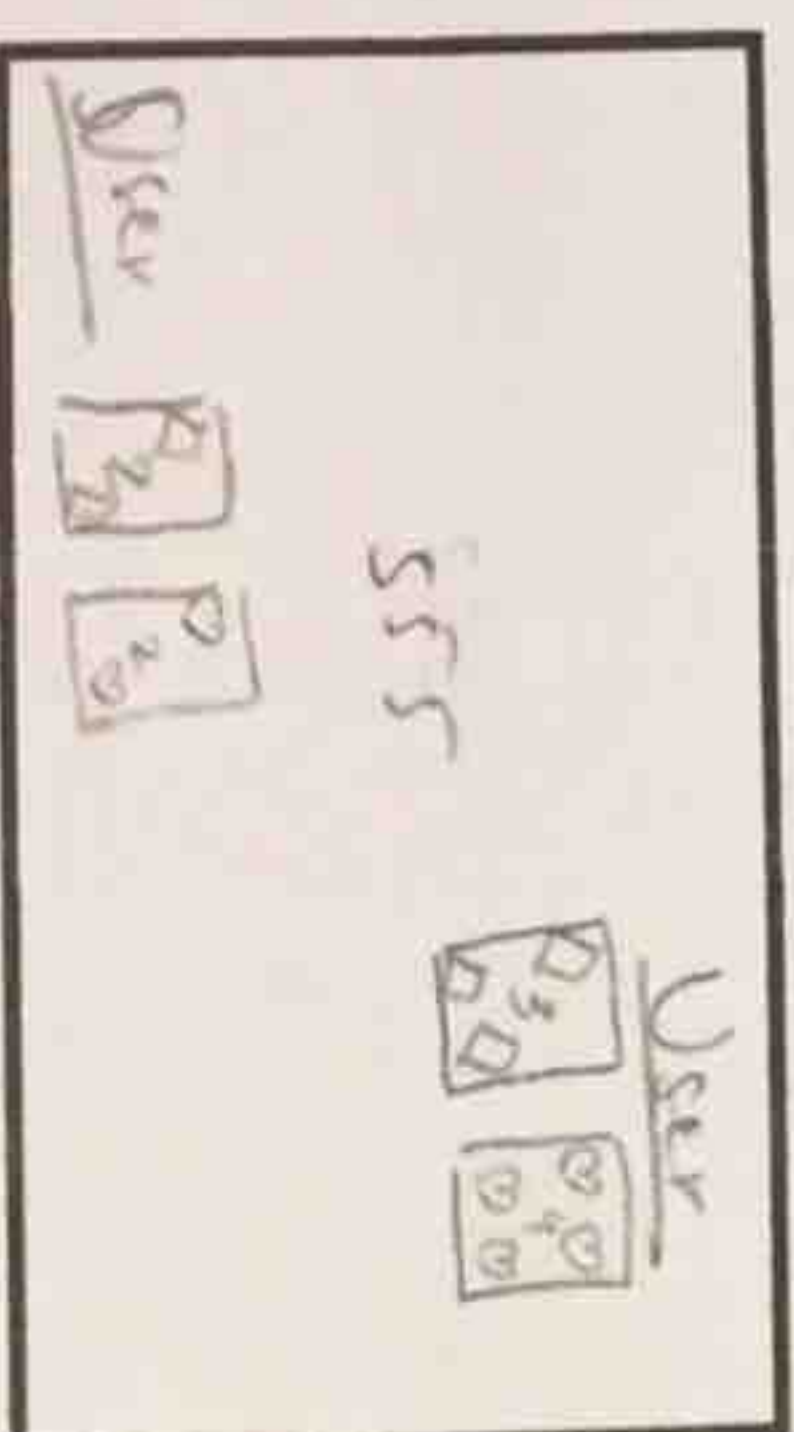

The dealer busts! The user wins a Blackjack

The 112 students don't do their 7P because they get addicted to have card games

Soon the 112 student gets his friends to play with him.

The pot is 555 in poker right now
